

BEDOUIIN SHAKESPEARE COMPANY SCHOOL WORKSHOPS

"When I asked them what they had got out of the workshop they were coming up with some wonderful, in-depth comments about how they now looked at the language."

- St George's British International School of Rome

Shakespeare Workshops for Schools

All workshops are led by Eddie Andrews, founder of Bedouin Shakespeare Company, with over 15 years' experience as an actor and director specialising in Shakespeare.

Eddie's workshops combine practical exploration with clear academic focus, helping students engage confidently with Shakespeare's language, characters, and ideas.

Sessions are structured, age-appropriate, and adapted to suit the level being taught.

Workshops are designed to support classroom study, helping students develop understanding while reinforcing key skills required when studying Shakespeare, including interpretation, analysis, and spoken performance.

Suitable for:

Upper Key Stage 2 · Key Stage 3 · GCSE · A-Level · IB

Why Schools Choose Us

Our workshops are designed to complement classroom study by approaching Shakespeare through practical exploration. These unintimidating workshops help students and give them the tools to analyse Shakespeare's works.

What the Workshops Include

- A historical introduction to the world and works of Shakespeare
- An introduction to his language (age group appropriate)
- Practical exercises using Shakespeare's texts
- An exploration of how the language works in practice
- Guided rehearsals in groups with step by step direction
- An opportunity to perform, present and reflect

Learning Outcomes

By the end of the workshop, students will:

- Place Shakespeare's work within its historical and cultural context
- Engage confidently with Shakespeare's language at an age-appropriate level
- Understand how Shakespeare uses language to tell the story and present characters
- Practically demonstrate their understanding through spoken performance

Formats

All our workshops run for 90 - 120 minutes depending on timetable requirements.

Group Size

One facilitator can run a workshop for up to 30 students. For larger groups we recommend adding a second facilitator or splitting students into two groups.

Testimonials

"A really energetic and engaging workshop. They created a fun and accessible environment for our pupils to experience Romeo and Juliet."

The Banda School, Nairobi

"Our pupils thoroughly enjoyed it. These things will make such a difference. Thank you - please come back and do another one soon!"

The British School Al Khubairat, Abu Dhabi

"These workshops made Shakespeare's language accessible and engaging. The students had fun and came away with a very impressive understanding"

Hurtwood House Summer School, United Kingdom

"The students were coming up with wonderful, in depth comments about how they now looked at the language. Thank you"

Extras

Table Read Workshops

For A Level and IB students studying English literature we offer Table Read workshops. These are in-depth deep-dives into plays and scenes for students keen on language and story-telling who do not wish to perform.

Acting Workshops

With 15 years' experience in professional theatre we also run acting workshops for drama students. If your drama class would like an acting session we would be happy to discuss this option. This can be on acting technique or a specific play.

Shows

If you are interested in your students seeing a Bedouin Shakespeare Company production please do get in touch. We tour internationally to theatres and school venues all over the world.
